

The company's CSR efforts have also significantly enriched the lives of young students through educational and engagement initiatives designed to foster creativity, awareness and life skills. Children participated in clay workshops, painting and drawing sessions, and singing workshops that introduced them to folk, solo and group music forms. These activities created joyful learning environments that encouraged imagination, confidence and self-expression.

Link to Source